Article I: Name

The name of this chapter shall be the “San Diego & Imperial Counties Chapter of the Peace Officers Research Association of California (PORAC). Within these bylaws it shall be referred to as “The Chapter.”

Article II Purpose

Section 1

The purpose of the San Diego & Imperial Counties Chapter is to provide and maintain an organization of peace officers employed by and retired from the various law enforcement agencies within the geographical boundaries of San Diego and Imperial counties. Functions of The Chapter shall be conducted in accordance with pertinent State law, Federal law and the bylaws of PORAC.

Section 2

The Chapter shall seek to promote and encourage the highest professional standards for peace officers and shall seek to sponsor all activities tending to improve the morale and contributing to the general welfare of the chapter members.

Section 3

The Chapter shall have the ability to engage in political activities in the name of “The San Diego & Imperial Counties Chapter of PORAC” without violating the “Home Rule.” The Chapter shall have the power to endorse or oppose candidates, political measures, initiatives, bond measures, or any other issues requiring public vote or ratification under the authority of PORAC’s S.R. Article V. The Chapter shall also have the right to expend Political Action Committee (PAC) or Political Issue Committee (PIC) funds, which have been designated by PORAC as belonging to The Chapter. Political endorsements will be ratified by a supermajority vote of two-thirds (2/3) or 66% of associations present.

The “Home Rule” for the San Diego/Imperial Counties Chapter is as follows:

1. The San Diego/Imperial Counties Chapter will not engage in political endorsements or contributions outside of its geographic jurisdiction without the approval of the other affected jurisdictional Chapter(s) of PORAC.
2. The San Diego/Imperial Counties Chapter will not engage in political endorsements of local agency or special district races in which the candidate would be a voting member affecting a Memorandum of Understanding of a voting Chapter Association opposing such an endorsement. These races include City Council, City Attorney, Mayor, School Board Trustee or College Trustee elections. In races pertaining to Board of Supervisor elections, if affected PORAC Chapter Associations are not in agreement of a single candidate, the Chapter will take a neutral position.

3. The San Diego/Imperial Counties Chapter will not engage in the political endorsement for County Sheriff that would be in opposition to any voting PORAC Chapter Association representing members of a County Sheriff's Department.
4. The San Diego/Imperial Counties Chapter will not engage in political endorsements of local political measures, initiatives, bond measures, or any other issues requiring public vote or ratification which would be in opposition to any voting PORAC Chapter Association directly affected by that initiative.

Article III: Membership

Membership shall be in accordance with Article II of the bylaws of PORAC.

Article IV: Dues

Dues shall be in accordance with Article III of the bylaws of PORAC.

(e) Chapter Director duties shall conform with Article VIII Section 6 of PORAC Bylaws.

Section 3

The Chapter officers designated in Section 1 shall be elected or appointed:

(a). The President shall entertain nominations from the members in attendance at a third quarter Chapter meeting under the “New Business” section of the meeting. Such nominations shall remain open until declared closed by the president as directed by the member associations in attendance. The elections shall be determined by vote of the member Associations present in November. (Amended 9/2020)

(b). All positions of the Chapter shall be elected for two-year terms, with elections held in the last quarter of odd numbered years.

(c). The Chapter Director shall be elected in accordance with Article IX, Section 8 of the PORAC bylaws.

(d). Vacancies may be filled by appointment of the E-Board (Executive Board), subject to ratification of the membership at the next Chapter meeting.

(e). The newly elected officers will take office on January 1st of the following year.

Article VI: Conduct of Business

Section 1

Whenever possible, the business of the Chapter shall be conducted at the regular Chapter meetings. Any other business shall be carried out by the Executive board, subject to the approval of the Chapter at the next regular Chapter meeting.

Section 2

The Executive Board may adopt, with subsequent ratification of the general membership, such Standing Rules as are necessary to insure the efficient operation and fiscal accountability of the offices specified in Article V Section 1. Such Standing Rules shall not supersede any Article of the Bylaws of this Chapter.

Section 3

Voting for Chapter and Region business, unless otherwise provided in these Bylaws, shall be as follows:

A. Associations shall have one (1) original vote as a member and one (1) additional vote for each of its one hundred (100) individual members for whom PORAC dues are paid.
